Circuit Court.

The closing days of the March term of the Bourbon Circuit Court were busy ones. The attorneys got very busy trying to have their cases disposed of many of them going over to the June term. Judge Stout again called down the Paris bar on the dilatory manner of preparing cases for trial.

The Court granted a mandamus compelling Mayor O'Brien and the City Council to turn over to Treasurer William Myall, of the School Board, the sum of $42,000 now on deposit with City Treasurer George B. Alexander. The contention arose over the disposition of the funds, the city claiming that at joint meeting of the Board of Education and the City Council an agreement was reached whereby the money was to constitute the "City School Building Fund" and drawn out on warrants signed by the President and Secretary of the Board of Education and countersigned by the Mayor. The city also claimed that by the money being on deposit with City Treasurer Alexander saved the city from paying large amount of interest on overchecks.

Saturday a motion was made to set aside the judgment. The motion was overruled, to which the defendants objected and expected, and prayed an appeal to the Court of Appeals. Judge Stout granted the defendants till the third day of the June term of court to file their bill of exceptions.

The case is now in position to be taken to the Court of Appeals if the City Council so elects.

In the case of Mary Howe vs. Russell Howe an order of judgment was entered giving the plaintiff an allowance of $20 per month, the first payment to be made on the last day of April and to continue till the suit for divorce is finally passed upon. Mrs. Howe is allowed the care, custody and control of her two infant children, with a provision that the defendant father shall be permitted to visit them during the day and at reasonable times.

Judge Stout sustained the demurrer to the answer in the cases of James M. O'Brien for Bourbon county, vs. Magistrates of Bourbon county, and gave defendants thirty days in which to amend. The ruling of the Court practically decides these cases against the Magistrates.

Judge Stout passed sentence on Otis Evans, housebreaking, four years in the penitentiary; Richard Brooks, wilful murder, twenty-one years, and Jas. Sausley, housebreaking, four years in the Reform School, he being only 16 years of age.

The Hon. J. Campbell Cantrill, of Scott county, announces in this issue that he will be a candidate for Congress in this district, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, which will be held on May 12th.

Cantrill, and is therefore a Democrat of the "true blue" order. He has ever been on the side of the great common people in every move. He is now State President of the Society of Equity, and if elected to represent this district in Congress he will be found fully qualified in every particular.

Rain Interfered.

Quite a number of farmers began seeding to oats on Friday only to suspend work Saturday as a result of a light rain. The crop this year will be considerably increased over that of last year and with settled weather conditions will be planted within the next ten days.

The Wheat Crop.

The wheat crop in Bourbon is said to be in fine condition and everything looks favorable for big crop. The Blue Grass pastures are also looking good, promising large crop of seed and early grazing.

A Refreshing Drink.

The most refreshing drink now to be had is the Lion Celebrated Bock Beer. For medicinal purposes it is the best beer made.

.....PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.....The Traveling Man.

Have you talked with the traveling man lately? They are an important factor in our commercial progress and they are the best news gatherers. The merchants come into contact with the farmers and laboring men, and the merchants' opinion is communicated to the traveling men in return for information gathered in the business centers. Thus the evangel of commerce becomes a sort of telephone, carrying the messages back and forth and bringing the different sections of the country into communication.

The traveling men know that the public is not satisfied with existing conditions and they know that the voters are becoming aware of the fact that the Republican party is responsible for the conditions. Monopoly in trade and in transportation is the enemy of the traveling men because the commercial traveler is the exponent of competition and the deadly foe of monopoly. Monopoly needs few traveling men and the traveling man is retired in proportion as monopoly gains and foothold. Anything that restricts trade or hinders commerce hurts the traveling man, and he is naturally drawn to Democratic ideas because Democracy stands for the greatest freedom of the individual and of industry. When the Democratic party demands that the government shall be administered by the representatives of the people and in behalf of the people, it takes a position which the traveling man is compelled by his interest to endorse, for just in proportion as the masses prosper the traveling man finds business; just in proportion as the producers are embarrassed the commercial traveling man's work is retarded. In proportion as the trusts obtain control of the industries, the business of the traveling man is menaced; in proportion as there is independence in industry, the traveling man thrives. The traveling man is by nature a tariff reformer for while the monopoly may increase its dividends by limiting its product and increasing its price, the traveling man must depend upon large sales, and large sales depend upon fair prices. The more money left in the pockets of the masses, the more they have to spend with the merchants and through the traveling man.

And so with the railroad question. The traveling men have been benefited by the reduction in rates, not only directly, but they have been benefited indirectly. The traveling man does not profit by the accumulation of unearned dividends in the hands of a few railroad magnates—he profits as the power of the people to spend increases. The traveling man might be interested in watered stock and fictitious capitalization if he was running a matrimonial bureau and selling foreign titles to American heiresses, but as he is interested in bringing the producer and consumer together he is compelled by force of circumstances to advocate legislation which will make business active and remove restrictions from trade and exchange.

The commercial travelers will be a valuable auxiliary in the coming campaign. They are intelligent, ever present and always on the watch. They do more talking for the amount of pay they receive than any other class of people, and they generally know what they are talking about. If you want to know the trend of affairs, listen to the traveling men as they get together at the close of the day's work. They are a pretty good index of public opinion.—The Commoner.

Cut it Out.

It goes hard with the tobacco trust to knock under to the growers. It has been in the habit of bluffing its way, and brooking no opposition. It met the independent manufacturer and crushed him. It tackled the warehouse interests and laid them low. It bumped the licorice interests off the track. It has kept the courts of justice on the jump and has evaded the anti-trust laws, says the Dover News.

Then it sat down on the producer, but before the life was squeezed out of him, he hit back. He grabbed the organization billy the trust had been using so mercilessly, and is using it with telling effect. Where the trust least expected successful resistance it has run up against the most stubborn fighters. These growers are fighting to retain a voice in the making of prices for raw material which they produce, and they are fighting like men fight when their homes and loved ones are in danger; like patriots fight when the yoke of oppression galls.

And it cuts the trust to the quick to have to surrender to a "lot of mules," as James B. Duke is alleged to have designated the tobacco growers.

Just one more battle will decide the controversy. With the 1908 crop cut out the trust will be no more. Raise a crop this year and the farmer will have tied the rope to hang himself. Cut it out.

Williams States Position of Democrats.

Representatives John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, as leader of the minority, has issued a statement defining the attitude of the Democratic party in the House board legislation urged by the President in his message to Congress at the present session.

The statement describes what Republican legislation the Democrats will support, what they will oppose and what concessions they demand on the part of the majority as the price for refraining from an organized filibuster throughout the remainder of the session.

Mr. Williams opens his statement by saying:

"Some things in the President's recent message are so immediately important to the interests of the entire country as to pass the bounds of partisanship and to make it excusable, if not necessary, for me to say something concerning them with the view of assuring the President himself, and the reasonably inclined Republican members of the House and the country of the support and endorsement, or the opposition, of the Democratic majority.

"Insofar as the things urged by the President are good things, I would like the country to know that all he has too do is to deliver twenty or twenty-five house votes in favor of them. These conjoined with the solid Democratic votes will put them through."

Mr. Williams notes the following measures as the ones which will command virtually the solid Democratic vote within constitutional limits:

To compel publication of campaign contributions.

Prohibition of child labor in the District of Columbia and the territories.

Employers' liability bill, drawn to conform to the recent decisions of the Supreme Court.

Federal liability to government employees.

Law to prohibit the issuance of injunction without notice to the party enjoined.

Removal of the tariff on wood pulp and printing paper.

Imposition of a Federal charge for every water power right granted on a navigable stream.

Those principles and measures urged by the President with which Mr. Williams, as the minority leader, takes issue are enumerated as follows:

Penalizing of the boycott.

The right of the Attorney General to nominate receivers when common carriers are thrown into the hands of a receiver.

Modification of the Sherman Anti-Trust law so as to permit within limitation the maintenance of trusts and the making of trade agreements between combinations of capital.

Appointment of a commission to prepare a date for a revision of the tariff.

"The President's idea of letting the substance or part of the anti-trust law remain as it is, but giving to some branch of the executive government authority to determine when a trust is a good trust, and when it is a bad one—in effect to license one and restrain another—is so very vicious in its ultimate effects, if adopted, that it would seem that no friend of a well-ordered government could stand for it.

"As to the President's preparation of tariff revision by consideration at the hands of a commission composed of members of the House and Senate, and so-called experts, is both cumbersome and useless.

"The very best possible tariff commission consisting of the representatives of the people, selected by the people in the interest of the people.

Even that body had too many men selected by private interests in the interest of private interests.

"If the Republican party can not furnish a Ways and Means Committee with sufficient intelligence to revise the tariff then will it surrender the reins of power to us of the minority and let us see whether we can or not."

Race Riot Headed Off.

A telegram from Montgomery, Ala., to the dailies of Saturday says: Because of inflammatory matter in a local negro paper, the Colored Alabamian, Sheriff Horace Hood has withdrawn permission for a meeting of negroes in the court house to-night, at which protest was to be made on the attitude of the administration at Washington on the race. The meeting had been called by Bishop Alstork and a number of others in what has been taken to be an anti-Taft movement in the State.

Sheriff Hood, addressing the editor of the paper, says:

"In view of your editorial, which is calculated to arouse a racial prejudice, creating a condition that bodes no good, but much harm to both races, especially the negro, who must be the greatest sufferer in any conflict aroused by foolish and unwise leaders and agitators, I withdraw my consent for a political meeting to be held in the county courthouse. As custodian of the courthouse, the property of the taxpayers of the county, I cannot give my consent for its use to men who write incendiary speeches, calculated to stir up strife and disturb harmony and good feeling that exists now, and is so desirable between the whites and blacks of this city and county."

Tells How to Mix It.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of a large New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being a vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

"This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

Prayed For Man He Roasted.

While testifying in his own behalf in the libel suit of Frank Gibbons, a Mt. Sterling saloonkeeper, Bruce W. Trimble, editor of the Mt. Sterling Advocate, and a preacher, said he had put articles reflecting on Gibbons in the paper believing such action was for the good of the community.

He was, he said, without actual knowledge as to their foundation. Trimble, in extenuation, said he had prayed frequently for Gibbons, attempting to show by this that he had no malice in publishing the statements, but the defense objected to this fact being offered as testimony.

Prof. H. A. Howell, of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Cure.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's America School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd, our baby was taken sick with a severe cold, the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now, three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by W. T. Brooks. "You need no other guarantee."

SIMPLE WASH CURES ECZEMA.

Itching, Burning Skin Diseases Routed Without Use of Injurious Drugs.

Great inventors often have been praised for surrendering the secrets of their discoveries. Practically the same thing happened in the medical world in the case of Dr. Decatur D. Dennis, the eminent skin specialist of Chicago.

Dr. Dennis, in his own office practice, discovered that pure vegetable oil of wintergreen, properly mixed with other simple remedies was practically a cure specific for Eczema, psoriasis, barber's itch, salt rheu, and other itching skin diseases. But the oil of wintergreen alone was found ineffective. It required other mild ingredients such as glycerine and thymol compounded with the wintergreen, to produce the real eczema cure.

This compounded D. D. D. Prescription positively takes away the itch at once—the instant it is applied to the skin. This vegetable liquid does away with deleterious drugs so long used in an attempt to doctor the blood, whereas modern science has determined that eczema is first and all the time a skin disease.

If you want to know more about the merits of D. D. D. Prescription, call at our store. We vouch for this remedy.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

Caught at Work.

John D. Noe and James Stamper, two noted moonshiners were caught at a still at Short Creek, Powell county, Friday morning by Deputy Collectors Kash and Herndon, Marshal Mays and Deputy Sheriff Bailey. The men were taken to Beattyville for trial. The officers destroyed a seventy-five-gallon copper still, 1,000 gallons of beer and a large amount of singings. The capture was made by the door of the still house being broken in by the officers.

Gov. Willson's Veto Ax.

Governor Willson has vetoed three bills which have excited interest all over the State. The most important was the bill for appropriation to build a State Tuberculosis Sanitarium, which all the physicians and Boards of Health in Kentucky have been advocating.

Governor Willson gave as the main reason that there had been too many appropriations already and that the money in the treasury was running short. Governor Willson, however, is preparing a statement of these or four thousand words which will be given out explaining why he vetoed the bill.

The bill appropriating $25,000 to the State Board of Health and to establish acteriological laboratory was also vetoed for the same reason. The school book bill was also vetoed.

Ninety-four bills were acted on, out of which were signed and 15 vetoed. The tuberculosis and the other two important bills were the first acted on, as they would become laws in ten days without his signature if not vetoed.

Governor Willson spent all the day in consideration of the few remaining bills on his desk. He heard a delegation of Boyle county citizens who came down to urge him to sign the measure appropriating $23,000 for the benefit of the school for the deaf at Danville.

He approved the bill after eliminating a section providing for a $5,100 appropriation for an industrial department of the school; $600 for a teacher to instruct the deaf blind children, and $2,500 to provide clothes and traveling expenses for the children who are brought to the school.

Superior Brand of Justice.

When it comes to the right and wrong of a question, a person has a personal right to do a thing that is right in itself. When applied to himself alone, but when the exercise of personal right antagonizes the common welfare of all, it then becomes a wrong; and while he is justified in his contention that he has a lawful right, as a free citizen, to do or not to do as he may see proper, yet there is a moral law of a superior brand of justice between man and man that says that he has not the right to gratify his personal right at the expense of everybody else.

Harlan Will Not Retire.

In an interview with Justice Harlan of the Supreme Court, he said:

"I can not imagine how it is that two or three times a year a report is printed that I am going to retire from the bench. The fact is that I have never contemplated much less considered such a thing. I will retain my position as long as I keep my present good health, and I do not propose for these reports of my retirement to go uncontradicted."

The Idol Business.

How many young beings are sacrificed to the idol, Business! Parents send their boys and girls, unseasoned, undeveloped, from the school room to the desk, the counter, the type machine to work all day, often by artificial light—their recreation an occasional evening in a close theatre instead of an afternoon under the skies and green trees. All to make money! And when the money is made, too often the man is unmade, as God created him. Health is gone, or else the soul is shivered, the imagination crippled, the zest of life has vanished.

Often it is necessity that goads the young to premature slavery, but often again it is ambition or greed on the part of the parents, or the idea that their chief duty to the boy is to insure him early to the yoke, and keep under it steadily that he may become a man of business. When he falls in harness, it is piously considered to be the doing of a mysterious Providence, to whose will one must be resigned.—Mary E. Bryan in Uncle Remus's Magazine for April.

Section 2. All milk wagons shall have the name of the owner and the number of the wagon or vehicle painted thereon plainly and legibly.

Section 3. All grocers, bakers, and other persons having or offering for sale milk, shall at (all) times keep the name or names of the dairyman or dairy company from whom the milk for sale was obtained, posted up in a conspicuous place wherever such milk may be sold or kept for sale.

States Cannot Control Liquor Shipment.

The sub-committee of the Senate Committee on Judiciary, to which was referred all bills seeking to prohibit shipments of intoxicating liquor into prohibition States, has made its report. Three of the five members—Knox, of Pennsylvania, and Fulton, of Oregon, Republicans, and Rayner, of Maryland, Democrats—believe such measures to be unconstitutional, as was announced two weeks ago. This report, prepared by Senator Knox, has just been made.

Mrs. Corne Watson Baird announces to the ladies of this and adjoining counties that she will have her Spring Millinery Opening this year on Friday, April 3rd. Mrs. Baird, who is the recognized leader in up-to-date millinery in Central Kentucky, has several first-class trimmers busily engaged in preparing hats in the very latest style for her callers on April 3rd. Her Easter hats are things of beauty. The styles this season are both large and small hats, with a tendency for the small. You will find at the opening the various up-to-date designs and you cannot fail to find what you want.

Ladies, do not fail to call and examine the beautiful and exquisite line of hats and millinery goods of all descriptions that will be on exhibition at Mrs. Baird's store on Friday, April 3rd.

If Not, Why Not?

Some one broke into Judge H. C. Smith's corn crib, at one of his cattle barns, near North Middletown, Saturday night and stole a lot of corn. Over in Montgomery county, Gov. Augustus E. Willson sent a squadron of soldiers to guard Judge Apperson's barn because the Judge was afraid something would happen. Now Judge Smith thinks (even if he is a Democrat) that the Governor should send a squadron of soldiers to guard his barns, and if not, why not?

New Trimmer.

Harry Simon has secured the services of Miss Lelia Endicott for the coming season. Miss Endicott has years of experience in the millinery business, having worked for years with the large wholesale firm of Fish & Co., of Chicago, and also in various other large cities. Miss Endicott is in a class of her own in this line and Mr. Simon is to be congratulated on securing the services of such an artist.

Miss Endicott will have entire charge of the millinery department of this up-to-date firm this spring and Mr. Simon is now in a position to say to the ladies that they need not look further for swell and nobby head-gear. The ladies are invited to call and see for themselves on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Councilman Parrish Interviewed

Councilman D. C. Parrish was stop- ped on the street yesterday and asked what it was that caused the worried expression on the usual cheerful look- ing mug of his. He promptly re- plied: "You may say, sir, in your shoe, that I am not worrying over the President's message, nor over the School Board question, nor about the tobacco situation; in fact, the only thing on earth that is worrying me at present is that Wagner, the greatest living baseball player, refuses posi- tively to play ball this year. That is the reason, sir, that I am now looking like 'Gloomy Gus.'"

Interurban Refused to Give Cut Rate as Advertised.

The Interurban road advertised a 60 cent rate from Paris to Lexington and return for those who wanted to attend the walking contest of the old Confed- erate soldiers last night at a Lexington rink. Quite a number of our citizens appeared at the interurban office for tickets, but the agent had not heard or had any orders in regard to the cut rate. This is shabby treatment on the part of the Traction Company. It is in keeping with the management of this road.

It Does the Business.

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve: "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c at Oberdorfer's drug store.

The Thrice-a-Week World.

A President of the United States will be elected this year. Who is he and who is the man he will beat? Nobody yet knows, but the Thrice-a-week edition of the New York World will tell you every step and every detail of what promises to be a campaign of the most absorbing interest. It may not tell you what you hope, but it will tell you what is. The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established a character for impartiality and fearlessness in the publication of the news, and this it will maintain. If you want the news as it really is, subscribe to the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and in thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly. The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Bourbon News together for one year for $2.50. The regular subscription prices of the two papers is $3.00.

Rank Foolishness.

"When attacked by a cough or a cold, or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. King's New Discovery," says C. O. Eldridge, of Empire, Ga. "I have used New Discovery seven years and I know it is the best remedy on earth for coughs and colds, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. Most children are subject to croup, but New Discovery quickly cures every attack." Now the world over as the King of throat and lung remedies. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Forest Denmark 153.

This noted sire will make the season of 1908 at my home, on the Harrod's creek pike, 8 miles from Paris and 4 miles from North Middletown, at $20 to Insure a Living Colt.

DESCRIPTION.—Forest Denmark is a solid bay, 16 hands high, has great natural style; carries head and tail high, and is not second to any stallion in Kentucky as a getter of high-priced saddle and harness horses.

He has always been at the head of the stud at Woodford's Stock Farm, Mt. Sterling, Kentucky. I was able to get him from the fact that my father's brood mares are nearly all by him.

Forest Denmark is the sire of the Chancellor that won sixteen blue ties in 1906, also his mate The Cardinal, which team won, single and double, thirty-eight blue ties in 1907. He has sired three other geldings which sold at an average price of $2,821.

The breeders of Bourbon county have never had, and probably never will have again, the opportunity to breed to the equal of Forest Denmark at $20.

TERMS.—Money due as soon as colts come, mare parted with or bred to another horse. Mares from a distance grazed at $3 a month. Every precaution will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible for those that occur.

To Insure a Mare in Foal.

Sam'l Clay,

Paris, - - - Kentucky.

WIGGINS is a horse of attractive conformation, 15 3 hands high, full of quality, and with fine feet and legs. In disposition and manners he is perfect. His colts are uniformly good colors and inherit his bold, frictionless way of going. They are generally pure gaited and trot with light shoes and few boots. WIGGINS himself wore a 7-ounce shoe with no boots in front. He was foaled a trotter, and as a yearling trotted a mile over a three-quarter mile track in 2:33 1/4. He took his record when two years old and won five straight stake races and $4,600 that season. Douglas Thomas, his trainer, says he could have trotted a mile over a good track in 2:12. His colts not only trot fast young, but sell for high prices. He was himself a bold finisher and his colts are like him in this respect. For an out-cross for in-bred mares you can't do better than to breed to WIGGINS, though he nicks well with mares of any breeding. No other stallion at the same age has ever accomplished more than WIGGINS. No other stallion of any age ever had three two-year-olds to beat 2:18 trotting in one year. No other stallion ever had seven trotters in 22.0 list at ten years.

Only Painting of Boone.

There never was but one oil portrait of Daniel Boone painted from life, says the Kansas City Star, and that was by Chetsre Harding, a distinguished artist of Boston, who came to Missouri in June, 1820, and painted it in the residence of Plance's Calloway, Boone's son-in-law, where Boone was then living, near the village of Marthasville. Rev. James E. Welch, one of the oldest Baptist preachers in the state, sat in Boone's bed behind him for Boone to lean against while Harding painted the picture, the pioneer being too feeble to sit alone. Harding's portrait of Boone now hangs in the State Capitol at Frankfort.

—Work on the new M. F. C. building begun Thursday. The work was formally opened Thursday morning with devotional exercises by the M.
F. C. faculty and students, after which the first shovel of dirt was taken out by Rev. W. T. Watts, of the Methodist church, and tossed high in the air.
Since then a large force of hands and carts have been at work excavating and hauling off the debris until now they are about ready to begin laying the foundation.

—The cadets of M. M. I., assisted by Misses Julia Carpenter and Mary McDaniel put on the four-act drama,
"Uncle Rube", at the M. M. I.
gymnasium. The evening was an ideal one and the audience was large. The entertainment was good from start to finish. The entire cast was selected with a good deal of care and each character seemed especially adapted for the parts assigned them. We regret that space will not permit us making public mention of each individual character. Cadet Jones, as Uncle Rube, played the old man to perfection; Cadet Rankin, as deacon Smalley, the old villian, was well on to his work; Bellinger, as Ike, the farm hand, was a typical, original character;
Miss Carpenter, as a country school teacher, captivated all with her ease and grace, while Miss McDaniel made an ideal widow, and several of our widowers would be glad to play the part with her. Cadet Baker, as Taggs, a waif from New York, did his part nicely, and was too much for the deacon. The orchestra, which was one of the best features of the occasion, delighted and astonished all with its pleasing repertoire. It was not organized until after Christmas and they certainly reflect great credit on their instructor, Prof. Frost, of Lexington, who has reason to be proud of his work. The entire work of the evening was worthy of professionals. Many of the cadets are inexperienced in stage work—all are young. To have seen them in their various roles one would have thought they were just from a school of dramatic art. The following is the cast of characters:
Reuben Rodnes, a justice of the peace, school trustee and a master hand at "swappin'" horses—Cadet Johns.
Deacon Smalley, a smooth old villian
—Cadet Rankin.
Mark, this son, a promising rascal—
Cadet Hinman.
G. M. Upson Asterbilt, a New York swell—Cadet Monsch.
Ike, the hired man—Cadet Biflinger.
Bud Gree, a rustic youth—Cadet Ferguson.
Bill Tappam, a constable—Cadet Aitkin.
Millicent Lee, the pretty school ma-am—Miss Juila Carpenter.
Mrs. MariaBunn, a charming widow—Miss Mary McDaniel.
Taggs, a waif from New York—
Cadet Baker.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

—Jesse Wheat, of Hutchison, sold 40,000 pounds of hemp, from 28 acres, at 7 cents to C. S. Brent & Bro., of Paris.

—During the year 1906 inspectors of the Department of Agriculture placed the meat inspection brand or label on nearly 35,000,000.

—The best American cattle have the top of the market in England. They are considered better than those imported from Canada or from Argentina. A great deal of American beef, too, is sold and eaten as British beef.

—In Scott county, J. W. Ferguson, of Atlanta, Ga., purchased 16 head of horses from Andrew Graves, R. D. Ranker, James Carick and A. Graves and others. The prices, considered good, ranged from $125 to $250 per head.

—At this season, when farmers are considering their spring planting, care should be taken in the selection of seed corn. One bad ear in a bushel, it is calculated, will cause a loss of one-tenth of an acre, and should an average of 60 bushels to the acre be raised, the loss would amount to six bushels to each acre of corn. A hundred acre crop would mean a loss of 600 bushels. Placing the price of corn at 55 cents per bushel the loss on the crop would reach $330. A few days work in selecting the seed corn and giving it a thorough test would no doubt save many farmers quite a neat sum of money on this product.

THEATRICAL.

BLACK PATTI.

—The sweet dark melodies which are among the distinctive and popular features of the Black Patti show are ever increasing in popularity. The negro songs of the banjo, the possum and the taters; the plantation, the camp-meeting, and peaceful, slavery days, with their haunting melodies when first sung by Black Patti Troubadours, quickly reach the home circle. Every year the Troubadours bring forth new gems of this style of music and the offerings in the new version of "Prince Bongaboo" are replete with these fascinating tunes and dance jingles.

Black Patti takes a conspicuous part throughout the entire performance, assisted by the admirable singing forces of the company, introducing many airs reminiscent to "Slavery Days," while those in "Prince Bongaboo" suggest the modern style of negro songs. Among the numerous songs and dance hits in "Prince Bongaboo" are "Daggonna, I'm Happy Now," "Running Wild," "The Lady of Quality," "The Feegee Man," "King Bongaboo," and "You."

The famous Troubadours, including "Tut" Whitney, the droll comedian, Marie LaCals, the "Tobacco" whirlwind, King and Bailey, eccentric comedians, the Great English Hoop Rolling Marvel, the Ladies' Sextette and "Queen" Dora, in her dazzling creation and harmony of lights, and two scores more, and the swell-gowned Dixie chorus will be seen in their latest "blazing sunburst of mirth, melody and dance" at the Paris Grand, Friday, April 3.

Report of Light Committee.

The following report of the Light Committee that was accepted and adopted by the City Council at the last meeting:

1. The members of the committee are of the opinion that it is better for both the city and the private consumers to divide the lighting contract as nearly equally as possible between the Electric Light and Gas Company. By this method both companies are put upon a paying basis, thereby enabling each company to give good service, and at the same time keep a live competition for the benefit of both the city and of the people who use light.

2. We are also of the opinion that not only will better service be obtained by the above method, but that a much better distribution of light—which is the one thing desired in such matters—will be secured than by accepting the proposal of the Electric Light Company, which is based upon candle power and not upon distribution.

3. When the two propositions are analyzed, the cost of lighting the entire city by one company, either gas or electric light, is practically the same.

For the above reasons we recommend that the bid of the Electric Light Company to furnish 335 arc lights at the price of $90 each, and thirty 60 candle power incandescent lights be accepted, and the bid of the Gas Company to furnish one hundred and twenty-five 50 candle power gas light at $25.00 each per annum be accepted; all additional lights required by the city to be furnished at the prices set out in the bids, and each company to furnish light for the City Hall and Fire Department without additional charge.

Respectfully,
WM. H. WEBB.

Flowers and Chickens.

As the spring time approaches our housekeepers will be urged to plant flowers and thus make the door yards of our town things of beauty. Many would do this were it not for their neighbors chickens. An old hen and half a dozen chickens can in four minutes tear up all the flowers the patient housewife has been six weeks in growing. If you will raise chickens, see that they do not molest your neighbor's garden or yard.
